

FOUNDER AND PRESIDENT

EMILIO R. ARMSTRONG

Emilio R. Armstrong is a Business Development Executive Advisor for companies expanding into the State of Texas and the United States. He specializes in matchmaking and networking to create meaningful connections between companies. Armstrong has experience in three arenas: consulting, public service, and academia. He has been interviewed in several articles and recognized as a Spotlight Alumni at the University of Houston. He is also included in the 75th year anniversary legacy book from the Gerald D. Hines College Architecture and Design at the University of Houston, where he received his Master's.

Armstrong is the former International Trade Representative for the country of Chile for the United State Southwest territory, including Arizona, New Mexico, Oklahoma, and Texas. During his 2 years as representative, the country of Chile moved up in the ranking Houston's Business Ties, from the 42nd position in 2019 to the 14th position in 2021 (Greater Houston Partnership, Global Houston Report).

Armstrong is a Limited Partner of the Greater Houston Partnership and active member of the Energy Committee. His latest participation at the GHP was in a Houston Businessmen Delegation to advocate for Infrastructure Investment, Energy Transition Lead Discussion, and the Houston Business Community in the Greater Houston region. This three-day event in 2022 and 2023 brought together members of Congress, the White House, federal agencies, and key stakeholders with leaders of Houston's business community to advance issues of importance to the Houston region.

In the community development arena, Armstrong is the founding member and past president of the Harris County Medical Center Rotary Club, helping and supporting different give-back activities related to the Texas Medical Center, recently recognizing HealthCare workers several Texas Medical Center hospitals for their hard work and dedication during COVID19.
